

XM is a choice made by those who want to hear it. I don't want advertisements in my music, I don't want my DJ's influenced by idiot corporations, and most of all, I want FREE SPEECH on my radio. For that, I and many others are WILLING to pay a monthly fee to escape the ad laden junk radio that's "free"...(well, except for NPR)

On top of all that, when I travel, it's nice to know XM has my back with Instant Traffic and Weather. Everything I need to know about everywhere I go is right there, preprogrammed and ready to go, and it never stops! It runs 24/7 with no ads or filler.

Maybe the NAB should foot half my monthly bill for deciding THEY don't like what I'M paying for?

What's happening to this country?
